Ho-onko

-Founder's Memorial-

ありがとうのつどい

November 11-16, 2024

About Ho-onko January 16 is the date of the death of Shinran, the founder of Shin Buddhism. The Ho-onko services are the most important service conducted in Shin Buddhism and memorializes the virtues of Shinran. The impressive event includes Buddhist chants and gagaku music performances conducted by large numbers of people. Tsukiji Hongwanji holds its Ho-onko services in November in order to avoid overlapping with the Ho-onko services held at the Hongwanji, the head temple of the Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha denomination in Kyoto from January 9 to 16.
